Software Developer

Under the general direction of Process Improvement Specialist, the Software Developer is responsible for supporting IT-related projects and operational application systems, including design, development and testing.

Responsibilities

- Supports current development projects by troubleshooting, debugging, testing, etc.
- Writes and maintains code.
- Creates and maintains system documentation, including preparing reports, manuals and other documentation on the status, operation and maintenance of systems.
- Collaborates with team members to:
  - leverage O365/SharePoint
  - assist with the migration of older applications to current technologies
  - assist with the collection and documentation of user’s requirements
  - identify operational bottlenecks
- Monitors technical performance of internal systems, refining and tuning as needed.
- Design, develop and test applications in accordance with established standards.
- Analyzing and developing solutions to technical and applications problems.
- Create dashboards and interactive visual reports using Power BI

Qualifications

Education: (minimum required)

- University degree or college diploma in Computer Science, Information Science or equivalent work experience.

Professional/Technical Knowledge:

- Experience with Power Platform; Certification is preferred
- Very good knowledge of the following technologies: SharePoint, Office 365, Power BI, Power Apps, Power Automate, etc.
- Experience with report writing

Skills and Abilities:

- Ability to work independently but is a team member with strong interpersonal skills
- Effective communication and organizational skills
- Able to manage multiple priorities in a fast-paced environment
- Strong analytical and problems solving skills; creative thinker
- Is a self-starter who demonstrates initiative, tact, respect, and diplomacy
- Capable of adapting to a complex and changing work environment
- Strong attention to detail and a high degree of accuracy
- Exercises sound judgment and a high level of confidentiality and discretion while working with sensitive and private information
- Proficient written communication, proofreading and editing skills required to draft or generate correspondence or documents.

- Proficiency in speaking and comprehending both English and French (Level B+) is an asset.
- Previous experience in a health care environment is an asset.

Contacts

To apply for this exciting opportunity, please forward your resume and cover letter, quoting the corresponding position title, by email to domcareers@toh.ca

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Support staff are employees of the hiring physician(s) or Division. The Ottawa Hospital is the paymaster of our employees. Although our employees have offices within the Ottawa Hospital, they are not employed by the Ottawa Hospital.

The Department of Medicine is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in its employment practices and to providing an environment free from discrimination and harassment for all employees. The Department of Medicine will, upon request, provide accommodations in accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act.

The Department of Medicine promotes the principles of diversity and inclusion. We encourage applications from women, Aboriginal peoples and persons of all races, ethnic origins, religions, abilities, sexual orientations, and gender identities and expressions.